WHEN???

*I am standing in the queue
For some reason, don't know why?
From Dawn to dusk, my heave
Is the only sign of relief?
Eternal peace of my mind,
Give me the strength to wait.
I know after some few decade,
My turn will come...
Still, an unknown healing
Surrounds me always.
Many are still behind me for their turn,
But, All I can is,
Just a wee ray...
(My vague soul is contemplate,
For my being on the queue)
One by one all are going,
And getting their rewards.*

Some cried, some laughed, even some blared,

But, I am just standing still,

And gazing at them.

Waiting in the queue for my turn...

But don't know when??
